PRIVATE MENTORSHIP
FOR PERSONAL & PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

Amy Lee & John Cole

THE ART OF SEEING

WHAT THIS MENTORSHIP IS

The HDC Private Mentorship is a sustained, one-to-one container for individuals who want to work closely with both Amy Lee and John Cole over an extended path of study and application. It draws on the same philosophical foundation as The Art of Seeing, our live cohort practicum series, which focuses on developing the ability to reliably see through the lens of Human Design, and brings that work into the intimacy of private mentorship. Like the series, this mentorship approaches Human Design and astrology as working maps for perception rather than systems of belief.

Throughout the program, the material is met in the context of daily life. In the mentorship, you work primarily with your own chart and the charts of people in your life and work: family, partners, children, friends, clients, colleagues. Sessions focus on examining charts together in detail and analyzing mechanics. We share what we see and explore what you see, refining perception through direct application rather than abstract study.

You work individually with each of us and, at key moments, with both of us together, allowing different qualities of attention, inquiry, and the relational field to serve different parts of the work.

APPROACH & ETHOS

The ethos of this mentorship is grounded in curiosity, honesty, and a willingness to observe without turning oneself or others into problems to be fixed. We recognize the risks of over-identifying with labels or deferring to external authority, and we hold the teaching lightly, as a language for what can be seen rather than an identity to adopt.

We draw on decades of experience working with individuals to share living examples of Human Design themes and elements. Mechanical differences are approached as natural and informative rather than as personal or moral. We support your deconditioning and deepening into your personal authority. We provide structure, demonstration, observation, and a relational field for inquiry, so you can develop your own relationship with the material.

THE ART OF SEEING

WORKING WITH BOTH GUIDES

A distinctive feature of this mentorship is that participants work with both Amy and John throughout their engagement, individually at different points and together when integration serves the work.

We bring different, complementary depths to this work. Our orientations, areas of focus, and ways of engaging with the material are genuinely distinct and, together, form a whole neither could offer alone. You can benefit from the specific gifts each of us brings and from the larger field their partnership creates.

In practice, this allows different qualities of attention to meet different parts of what's being explored. Some sessions call for sustained depth with a single guide; others benefit from the triangulation of two perspectives held in the same field. Session distribution is balanced across the mentorship and shaped in conversation with the participant, playing to each guide's strengths.

WHAT'S ASKED OF THE PARTICIPANT

Your genuine engagement is essential to the mentorship program. You are expected to schedule sessions at the start of the program and attend sessions consistently, engage with the contemplations and observational assignments between meetings, and bring yourself to the sessions: your own chart, the charts of people in your life, and the situations in your daily life.

Some of the session time is spent looking at charts together in detail, reading mechanics, seeing how you meet lived experience, and working through what you see as you develop a synthesized understanding.

Our aim is to support you in deepening your skill and awareness in alignment with your own nature. Performance and perfection are not the goal. Curiosity, attention, and sincerity in doing the work are enough.

MODULES

01 The Individual Chart

02 Relationships & Connections

03 Cycles & Timing

01 The Individual Chart

TUITION $995 · DURATION 8 WEEKS · TWO 90-MINUTE PRIVATE SESSIONS

MODULE DESCRIPTIONS

WHO THIS IS FOR

Participants with a working familiarity with Human Design foundations, whether from the Foundations level, prior study, or equivalent experience, are ready to move from knowing the elements of a chart to seeing an individual design holistically.

Working fluency with the essential mechanics of Human Design is assumed, whether through the Foundation Courses (Living Your Design, Rave ABCs, Rave Cartography) or equivalent study. A brief conversation is recommended for anyone who would like to discuss readiness.

CURRICULUM

The work moves through three complementary views of the individual chart.

The True Self addresses the healthy functioning of both defined and undefined mechanics: the reliable expression of definition and the wisdom of openness when in a healthy state. The Not-Self examines how conditioning distorts expression and creates psychological and relational suffering where there could be spaciousness.

The Transcendent Self introduces Profile, Incarnation Cross, and the Nodes as the natural consequence of inner alignment.

WHAT'S INCLUDED

Access to foundation recordings and reference materials for the 9 Centers, 7 Authorities, 5 Types, 36 Channels, 64 Gates, 12 Profiles, and Polarities of the Wheel, together with:

- Two 90-minute private sessions distributed between Amy and John
- Sessions scheduled roughly once a month
- Slides are provided for you to review prior to each meeting in preparation
- Written contemplations and assignments between sessions, with email access throughout
- A final integrative presentation of the participant's own chart and one additional chart (written or pre-recorded)

02 Relationships & Connections

TUITION $995 · DURATION 8 WEEKS · TWO 90-MINUTE PRIVATE SESSIONS

WHO THIS IS FOR

Participants ready to expand the field of observation from the individual chart into relationships and group dynamics. This module moves the work from the consistency of an individual design into the fluid territory of interaction, where two or more designs come together and a shared field of experience forms.

Working fluency with the individual chart is assumed, whether through Module 2, the Foundation Courses, or equivalent study. A brief conversation is available for anyone who would like to discuss readiness.

CURRICULUM

The module examines what happens between people: how two or more designs meet, what each brings to the shared field, and how connection itself functions as a third entity with its own themes, priorities, and tensions.

The study includes connection charts as third entities, auric mechanics, electromagnetics, dominance and compromise, the Love Gates and Gates of Aloneness, and the chart as a tool for conscious parenting. The module also introduces basic Penta dynamics as a way of recognizing how a small group field forms when three to five auras come together.

WHAT'S INCLUDED

Continued access to foundation recordings and reference materials, together with:

- Two 90-minute private sessions distributed between Amy and John
- Sessions scheduled roughly once a month
- Slides are provided for you to review prior to each meeting in preparation
- Written contemplations and assignments between sessions, with email access throughout
- A final integrative presentation (written or pre-recorded) of a connection chart of the participant's choosing

03 Cycles & Timing

TUITION $995 · DURATION 8 WEEKS · TWO 90-MINUTE PRIVATE SESSIONS

WHO THIS IS FOR

Participants ready to explore planetary cycles, transits, and timing as a primary dimension of the work. This module moves from the consistency of the individual chart into how experience changes, matures, and reorganizes across different phases of life, and how Human Design, astrology, and the larger arc of one's life story can be read together.

Working fluency with the individual chart is assumed, whether through Module 2, the Foundation Courses, or equivalent study. A brief conversation is available for anyone who would like to discuss readiness.

CURRICULUM

The module introduces time as a primary dimension of experience, exploring how planetary movement, transits, and developmental cycles shape the unfolding of a life.

Participants explore planetary imprinting, daily and annual conditioning, Solar Returns, and the major initiatory cycles: Saturn Return, Uranus Opposition, Chiron Return, and the Second Saturn Return. The Life Story emerges as a way of seeing biography as a coherent unfolding rather than a series of isolated events.

WHAT'S INCLUDED

Continued access to foundation recordings and reference materials, together with:

- Two 90-minute private sessions distributed between Amy and John
- Sessions scheduled roughly once a month
- Slides are provided for you to review prior to each meeting in preparation
- Written contemplations and assignments between sessions, with email access throughout
- A final integrative presentation (written or pre-recorded) of one major cycle transit

MODULE DESCRIPTIONS

* Private Mentoring Sessions

TUITION $295 PER SESSION · ONE 90-MINUTE SESSION

For participants with specific chart questions for professional development or focused review of Human Design concepts and interpretation.

Useful for practitioners consulting on client charts, seeking mentorship in a particular aspect of Human Design, or returning to the work periodically after completed training.

Sessions are scheduled with Amy or John based on your preference.

Charts, questions, or context may be submitted in advance, and follow-up materials are shared by email as needed.

GUIDES

AMY LEE

IHDS Certified Analyst and Teacher, LYD Guide, and Counselor

For the past 25 years, I have studied systems that seek to explain human nature from psychological, spiritual, and physical well-being perspectives. Since 2009, I have been deeply immersed in working with the Human Design System. I have seen aspects of the truth reflected in many other systems, but have found Human Design to be the most accurate, practical, and essential synthesis of understanding about how we live, function, and fulfill our purpose as human beings. My approach is holistic, intuitive, and spacious.

JOHN COLE

IHDS Certified Analyst and Teacher, LYD Guide, and Astrologer

With over three decades of astrological study and more than ten years of experimenting with the Human Design System, I have dedicated myself to understanding the unique cosmic blueprints that guide each of us. My approach blends this deep knowledge with lived experience to recognize the individuality and sovereignty of every client. I aim to support you in connecting with your true self and fostering greater awareness and acceptance.

PRACTICAL DETAILS

SCHEDULING

Recorded material provides understanding and reference information for understanding the key components of the chart.

Mentoring sessions focus on reviewing charts together, your own chart examples, and your questions on the content. Your personal chart and the charts of those you know are used to illustrate the material. These sessions are not intended for in-depth analysis outside the scope of the course.

Email access is available throughout the mentorship for questions that arise between sessions. These exchanges support continuity and integration.

COURSE MATERIALS

Recorded foundation materials, written reference documents, and session recordings (where applicable) are provided for personal study throughout the mentorship and remain available to the participant after completion.

PAYMENT

Tuition may be paid in full at the start of the mentorship or through a payment plan arranged in conversation. An additional 5% discount is available for Bitcoin payments.

An initial meeting with both of us is recommended to determine a good fit for both parties and to ensure mutual benefit.
